National Parks in Alberta

BANFF-JASPER — (Columbia Icefields) Highway now open year round but subject to controlled traffic during winter season.

BANFF NATIONAL PARK

Open all year, reached by railway and 24-ft. paved highways with 10-foot shoulders; fully equipped with gondola, sedan and chair lifts which cater to tourists in summer and skiers in winter. Banff National Park (2,560 sq. mi.) in the heart of the Canadian Rockies is famous for its curative mineral hot springs, excellent fishing, world-famous golf course, its School of Fine Arts, its huge modern trailer parks and campgrounds and a wide range of motel and hotel accommodation to suit every purse. Banff is Canada's choice for the 1968 Olympic winter games. Nearby Lake Louise, surrounded by perpetual glaciers and unexcelled scenic grandeur is a paradise for motorists and hikers in summer, and skiers in winter.

JASPER NATIONAL PARK

Served by pavement and railway from Edmonton all year and the Banff-Jasper Highway in summer, Jasper National Park (4,200 sq. mi.) is famous for its numerous lakes, streams, waterfalls, awesome canvons and magnificent mountains, its excellent golf course, its great variety of wild life, its fishing and its "family skiing" facilities. Jasper town is headquarters for pack trips, rides and hikes into vast parkland regions which have been carefully preserved in their primitive state. Accommodations range from large modern trailer parks and campsites to modern motels, commercial hotels and resort lodges.

WATERTON LAKES NATIONAL PARK

Situated on the Great Divide and the Montana border, this park (204 sq. mi.) is Canada's portion of the Waterton-Glacier International Peace Park. It provides every kind of facility for enjoyable vacations and especially for riding, hiking, fishing, golfing, swimming and boating. Its intriguing multi-colored mountains challenge the skills of climbers and photographers alike. Accommodations range from campgrounds and trailer parks to luxury motels and lodges.

ELK ISLAND NATIONAL PARK Principally a preserve for more than 1,000 buffalo

The Mackenzie Highway extends from Grimshaw, a few miles west of Peace River, 385 miles to Lower Hay River on the southwest shore of Great Slave Lake in Mackenzie Territory. The highway is gravelled throughout and is kept open all year. A gravelled district road from High Level extends to Fort Vermilion on the Peace River. The highway penetrates some of the most wild and unsettled areas in Canada. It traverses muskegs, jackpine ridges, sluggish creeks and rapid rivers, all of which are bridged. One of the most beautiful sights on the highway is Alexandra Falls, about 350 miles north of Grimshaw. At this point the Hay River plunges 109 feet from a wide ledge or bench into a gorge. Louise Falls, 46 feet high, not visible from the highway, are reached by a walk of about a mile.
